

Nurse Practitioner, Glomerulonephritis Clinic

Our Nephrology Program

Humber River Health is proud to provide an exceptional Nephrology Program with our Kidney and In-Center Hemodialysis Unit. We perform approximately 62,000 hemodialysis treatments annually and strive to provide quality patient care through prevention, diagnosis, and treatment.

Job Summary

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Participating and leading quality improvement and administrative activities focusing on advancing patient care outcomes
- Liaison with community-based providers, advocating on behalf of clients and families and participation in patient and family conferences as needed
- Performing research activities; developing, delivering, coordinating and participating in education and professional development activities/programs
- The NP will formulate clinical decisions and develop adult client care plans for patients with glomerular disease

Qualifications

CNO Registration:

- Extended Class (EC) Required

Masters in Nursing

Nurse Practitioner Certificate Required

Experience in:

- Change Management
- Program Development
- Quality Improvement Methodology

Why Humber River Health?

Attracting and retaining a workforce that represents the diverse communities surrounding Humber River Health, is a priority. We encourage applicants from all equity-deserving groups, including but not limited to, individuals who identify as Indigenous, racialized, seniors, persons living with disabilities, women, and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ. Accommodations are available throughout the recruitment process as well as during employment at Humber River Health. Please direct any accommodation requests to our recruitment team.

Humber River Health

1235 Wilson Ave
Toronto, Ontario M3M 0B2
(416) 242 1000

www.hrh.ca/careers

If interested, please send your CV to rcheng@hrh.ca
The email subject is to include 'NP - GN Clinic'

Scan to Learn
More!

