

Job posting Nurse Practitioner

At Nord-Aski Family Health Team (NAFHT), we believe in comprehensive, patient-centered care that respects cultural differences. Together, we work to improve the health and well-being of our communities. If you share these values and wish to actively contribute to our mission, we have a great opportunity for you.

We are looking for a dynamic, organized, punctual, reliable and discreet individual to occupy a full-time permanent position of nurse practitioner within our primary care clinic. Under the supervision of NAFHT's executive director, this individual works closely with physicians and interdisciplinary health providers to achieve the organization's strategies that aim to increase access to primary care for target populations identified by Ontario Health. The employee's duties are performed in accordance with the standards of practice that govern the profession of nurse practitioner.

Overview of responsibilities

- Providing primary health care in a community clinic setting.
- Travel to the site of partner organizations.
- Contribution to the development of new priority community services.

Required qualifications

- University degree for nurse practitioners.
- Member in good standing in the extended class of the College of Nurses of Ontario.
- Experience with the running of a medical centre and with the use of an EMR.

Abilities sought

- Strong team spirit and interpersonal skills.
- Excellent capacity to keep records up to date and to prioritize between tasks.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in both official languages.
- Capacity to adapt to a new and constantly evolving work environment.
- Knowledge of current and emerging practices in primary care delivery with emphasis on prevention, self-management, and risk reduction.
- Autonomy, professionalism, trustworthiness, respect, discretion and confidentiality.
